

Call for Applications

2nd Annual International Conference of Latvian Economic Association

“Society, Environment and Sustainability of Business”

Riga, March 4-5, 2011

Dear Friends and Colleagues!

On behalf of the Latvian Economic Association, I am writing to announce the initial information about the Annual International Conference of the Association. It will take place in Riga, Latvia on March 4th and 5th, 2011.

The main items for the discussion of the conference will be:

- Social Choice and Individual Preferences
- In Search of New Business Philosophy – Lifestyle Business, Intrapreneurship, Employee Financial Participation, etc.
- Economy as the Subsystem of Nature
- The Dilemma of Economic Growth
- Stationary State of Economy – from Mill to Daly
- Economy as if People Mattered

Other items concerning the theme of the conference are welcomed.

There is no participation fee for the conference.

Deadline for application is January 15, 2011.

More detailed information about the conference will be soon on the association webpage: <http://leaekonomisti.lv> .

Until this you can use for contacts the following e-mail address: abrivere@td.lv

Kind Regards:

Ivars Brivers, Chair of the Association